

Whole Foods Market Mill Valley's
Community Support Day Program
(Updated 2/23/09)

Whole Foods Market believes passionately in supporting the communities we serve. We give back at least five percent of our profits to the community each year. Throughout the year we make hundreds of small contributions to local fundraisers and event held by non-profit organizations in our communities.

Additionally, once a quarter, Whole Foods Market contributes 5% of one day's sales to a non-profit organization (Community Support Days). We work together with the participating group to promote the organization, finding fun and creative ways to generate sales the day of the event. The participating organization is encouraged to promote the event within their organization and out to the community-be it a newsletter, meeting, emails, or other media. Occasionally we have regional and national Community Support Days as well.

The first step in becoming a beneficiary of a CSD is to complete a CSD application. Once you have completed the form please email (preferred), fax it , mail it or drop it off at the Customer Service area. Each quarter, the applicants are reviewed and a vote is held by the store team members to choose a beneficiary for that quarter.

Whole Foods Market generally supports local organizations that support feeding the hungry, arts and education, children, environment conservation, sustainability, animal compassion, organics and responsible agriculture. However, we're happy to consider any local, non-profit organizations for our CSD program.

Thank you for your interest in our Community Support Day Program.
